Joint Religious Legislative Coalition (JRLC) and Interfaith Children's Advocacy Network Present:

Sex Trafficking in Minnesota

April 14, 2016

St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Luverne
7 pm performance with panel discussion to follow
Free Admission

The original play BOTTOM tells the story of Amber Cregg, a previously prostituted young woman who cooperates with investigative authorities as they search for Coco, an eleven year-old girl who had been trafficked in northern Minnesota. As the play unfolds, the audience learns about the systemic nature of the sex trafficking industry and witnesses its psychological impact on those who become trapped within it. By citing Minnesota-specific trafficking data and casually mentioning cities where trafficking is known to occur, BOTTOM hits home - sex trafficking is a reality, here and now.

Recommended for ages 13+ due to strong language and honest content.

Sponsored by St. Catherine's/St. Mary's Partners for Human Concerns, St. Catherine's LCCW and JRLC

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of Al Stroh would like to thank everyone for your outpouring of support, meals that were delivered, friends and family that called, traveled and turned out for the beautiful celebration of life that Al lived and the legacy he has left behind. We appreciate and thank the nurses and doctors that were there with Al and did all they could for out family. Thank you for the words of comfort and peace by Pastor Kristi Franken during this difficult time. The staff at Dingmann Funeral Home, we thank you for being so kind, patient, and helpful in making the decisions for Al's final resting place. Thank you for all the love and support.
